The Dose was violent, the Dispatch extraordinary quick, and the Body immediately opened.

The Entrails were taken out, that nothing might appear to the Eyes of the World, nevertheless his Face appeared very red; and this was the Reafos, it is faid, that the Empress was not suffered to see

It is faid that this black Fellow now keeps an Equipage, lives high, and has many Acquaintance of the better Sort.

Ollober 9. An Officer who was in the Action near Amonebourg, in his Letter, dated the 25th of September, fays, "We now lie on the Ground in Camp opposite the Pass, and the French on the other Side the River. We have made very strong Batteries, and they have done the same. GOD knows what will be the End of it, but no confi. derable Advantage has been gained on either Side, though there has been so great an Effusion of Blood. We lay in the Battery with the Dead all Night."

Some Letters from Paris, by the Way of Holland, speak of a Peace (which a Week or two ago was looked upon as good as concluded) as meeting with fo many Obstacles, that they were not now able to guess when the Preliminaries would be figned.

The Dutch Politicians differ greatly in their Conjectures about the Negociation on Foot between France and England. Some of them look upon the Whole as a meer Farce of the French and Spaniards, in order to gain Time, and wonder the Duke of Bedford is not already returned.

By our freshest Advices from Portugal, the Spaniards are bringing all their Forces into the Field, in order to make a grand Push against the English and Portuguese, on which Account they have drawn all their Troops out of Chaves, as also the Garrison of 6000 Men out of Almeida.

By the most exact Estimation that could be made, when the last Letters were dispatched from the Havannah, the Money and Effects at that Plice, belonging to the King of Spain, will amount to four Millions Sterling. It is rumoured that his Majesty hath very graciously given up his Sharen the Captors; and that Part of it will be appropriated for the Benefit of the Widows, Children, or Heirs of the brave Men who fell in this glorion Expedition; for whom, by our present desective Regulations, no Provision is made; but while the Captain of the Stirling-Castle shares equally with Capt. Hervey of the Dragon, the forrowfd Widow of the gallant Capt. Gooffree receives not fo much as Mourning for her deceased Husband; and the only favour shewn to the Widows of those Men who lost their Lives in mounting the Breach at Moro Castle, is the Grant of a Passport to prevent their being whipt as Vagrants, if found out of their proper Parishes.

OA. 12. Letters from Crossen of the 30th uk. advise, that the Governor of Schweidnitz continued then to make a brave Desence. That on the 27th and 28th ult. there was a most terrible Fining on both sides, from their Cannon, Mortars and Small Arms, which lasted each Day from Morning, till Night without Intermission.

Many Persons of some Rank think we shall have another Year's War, unless the Spaniards and French

approve of our Conditions.

Extra@ of a Letter from Lifton, dated the 18th ml.

"Last Week came down Prisoner Count de Lippe's Linguist, a Portuguese, for carrying on a Correspondence with the Spaniards, and informing them of every Proceeding of our Army, and de-ceiving the Count in reading Letters that he receiv-French ed from the Portuguese Governors, Officers, &c.

By which the Count, and a Number of Troops, had near fallen into an Ambuscade, and been cut of. The News of a Battle in Portugal is every Day expected. On this Action will depend whether there is to be a Peace or War, as in all Probability it will prove nearly decifive in its Consequences.

By a Gentleman that arrived within this Day or two from Spain, we are informed, that the Spain ards expressed great Uneafiness at being draws into a War on Account of France; that they expressed great Uneafiness at our Expedition against the Havannah; and he verily believes, that when they come to be informed of the Lofs of that Isportant Place, they will not fuffer a Frenchman w be in Spain.

NEW-YORK, December 20.

By his Excellency George, Earl of Albemarle, Viscount Bury, Buron of Afbford, one of his Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, Governor of the Island of Jersey, Colonel of the King's own Regiment of Dragions, Commander in Chief of his Majesty's Forces, Captain General and Governor of the Island of Cuba. It being stipulated by the 7th Article of Capitulation, that no Promotions should be made in the Church without the Approbation and Confent of the Governor, his Excellency the Earl of Albemarle, having on several Occasions demanded of the Bishop a List of the Ecclesiasticks in his Diocele, in order that his Excellency might be able to Judge of the Merits of such Persons as should be recommended for Preferment.

And whereas the Bishop, in a very-disrespectful Manner, having always denied complying with his Excellency's Demand, and in a Letter of the 2d of this Month, not only absolutely resuled to fend the List demanded, but threatened, in a very unlawful and imperious Manner, that he would complain to the Courts of Great-Britain and Spain of the irregular Demand, as a Breach of the Capitulation; and made Mention in faid Letter of the respective Courts and Sovereigns in a very seditious Manner, forgetting not only his being Subject to Great-Britain, and confidering himfelf a Subject of his Catholic Majesty, notwithstanding the Capitu-

Wherefore his Excellency the Earl of Albemarle thinks it absolutely necessary to move the Bishop from this Island, and send him to Florida, in one of his Majesty's Ships of War, in order that the Tranquility of this City may be preserved, and that Harmony and good Understanding may be preserved between his Majesty's Old and New Schiede, which the Richard in State and

Manner, has endeavoured to interrupt:

His Excellency, with great Regret, finds himfelfobliged to make Ufe of his Authority, and the felf obliged to make Ule of his Authority, and the Power with which he is invested, not only by the Conquest, but also by the 11th Article of the Capitulation. But notwithstanding such irregular Proceedings of the Bistiop, his Excellency is determined to continue to protect the Church, and preserve its Members in all their Rights and Privileges; as flipulated by the Articles of Capitulation, altho' those have not been strictly complied with on the Part of some of the Magistrates within the District and Jurisdiction of the City of the Havannah.

Signed, ALBEMARLE.

SCHEME of a LOTTERY, for Raising ONE HUNDRED and FIFTY POUNDS, to be applied towards Building a WHARF at Bobemia Ferry, in Cacil County, Maryland

As this Undertaking is intended, in a very particular Manner, for the Public Good, no other Recommendation is thought requisite in it's Favour. The great Advantages accruing from it, to Numbers of the Trading Gentlemen refiding in the Lower Counties of this Province, and a confiderable Part of the Colony of Virginia, is beyond Doubt Excitement sufficient for their unanimous Encouragement of a much more extensive, though (perhaps in the Issue) not more laudable Undertaking. The Situation of the Place must undoubtedly Claim the Preserence of any other at the Head of the Bay, it being much the nearest navigable Landing, from whence a constant uninterrupted Communication with Philadelphia may, with the greatest Ease, Sasety, and Expedition, be maintained. A commodious Road for Cartage, not exceeding 13 or 14 Miles, is already laid out from the Ferry on Bobemia River to Reedy-Island. A convenient Waggon for Passengers, or Goods, (and more than One upon any Emergency) will constantly attend once a Week at the Ferry, when the Scheme shall be compleated.

A convenient Wharf and Warehouse is already built by Capt. Jacob Gooding at his Landing, at Reedy-Island, who intends keeping in constant Attendance a proper Vessel, once a Week (or oftener is Nearly with the state of t if Necessary) to go from thence to Philadelphia.

As small Undertakings may in Time, if properly encouraged, become of great and public Utility, this Scheme is therefore humbly recommended to the impartial Confideration of the Public, the Managers trusting it will meet with Success adequate to it's Intention.
